ABOUT the Autor

Kamogelo Keletso Wessie is a passionate and dedicated interior design professional with a deep commitment to elevating the building industry. With nearly 13 years of hands-on experience, she is the founder of Elev8 Interiors, a boutique, design-led procurement consultancy. Based in Johannesburg, South Africa, her work and influence extend across the globe.

Her academic journey at Tshwane University of Technology provided a strong foundation for her career, where she earned a Diploma in Interior Design, a BTech Degree in Interior Design, and most recently, a Post Graduate Diploma in Interior Design. As a certified cabinetry specialist, she brings a detailed and technical eye to her projects, ensuring both beauty and function are seamlessly integrated. With a personal passion for the principles of Feng Shui, Kamogelo believes that our environments should not only look good but also feel harmonious, supporting our overall well-being. This holistic approach—blending technical expertise with a heartfelt desire to create positive spaces—is the cornerstone of her work and the inspiration behind this book.
